Florida State University Libraries

Faculty Publications

Maguire Medical Library

2013

Increasing our Library's Value with DALRs

Susan A. Epstein

Increasing our Library's Value with DALRs

Susan Epstein, MSLS, AHIP, Systems Librarian; Florida State University College of Medicine; Maguire Medical Library; Tallahassee, FL

©Copyright 2013 Florida State University College of Medicine Maguire Medical Library

Why Did the Service Evolve?

—"Parallel" Needs Identified

Lunch and Learn sessions Fall 2010 ->

Identified departmental support personnel as needing library skills to work with faculty

College-wide emphasis on research -> Increased faculty need for library research

Departmental support person (w/MLS) was asked to do literature searches ->

Contacted us to "not step on librarian toes"

Who Provides Which Service?

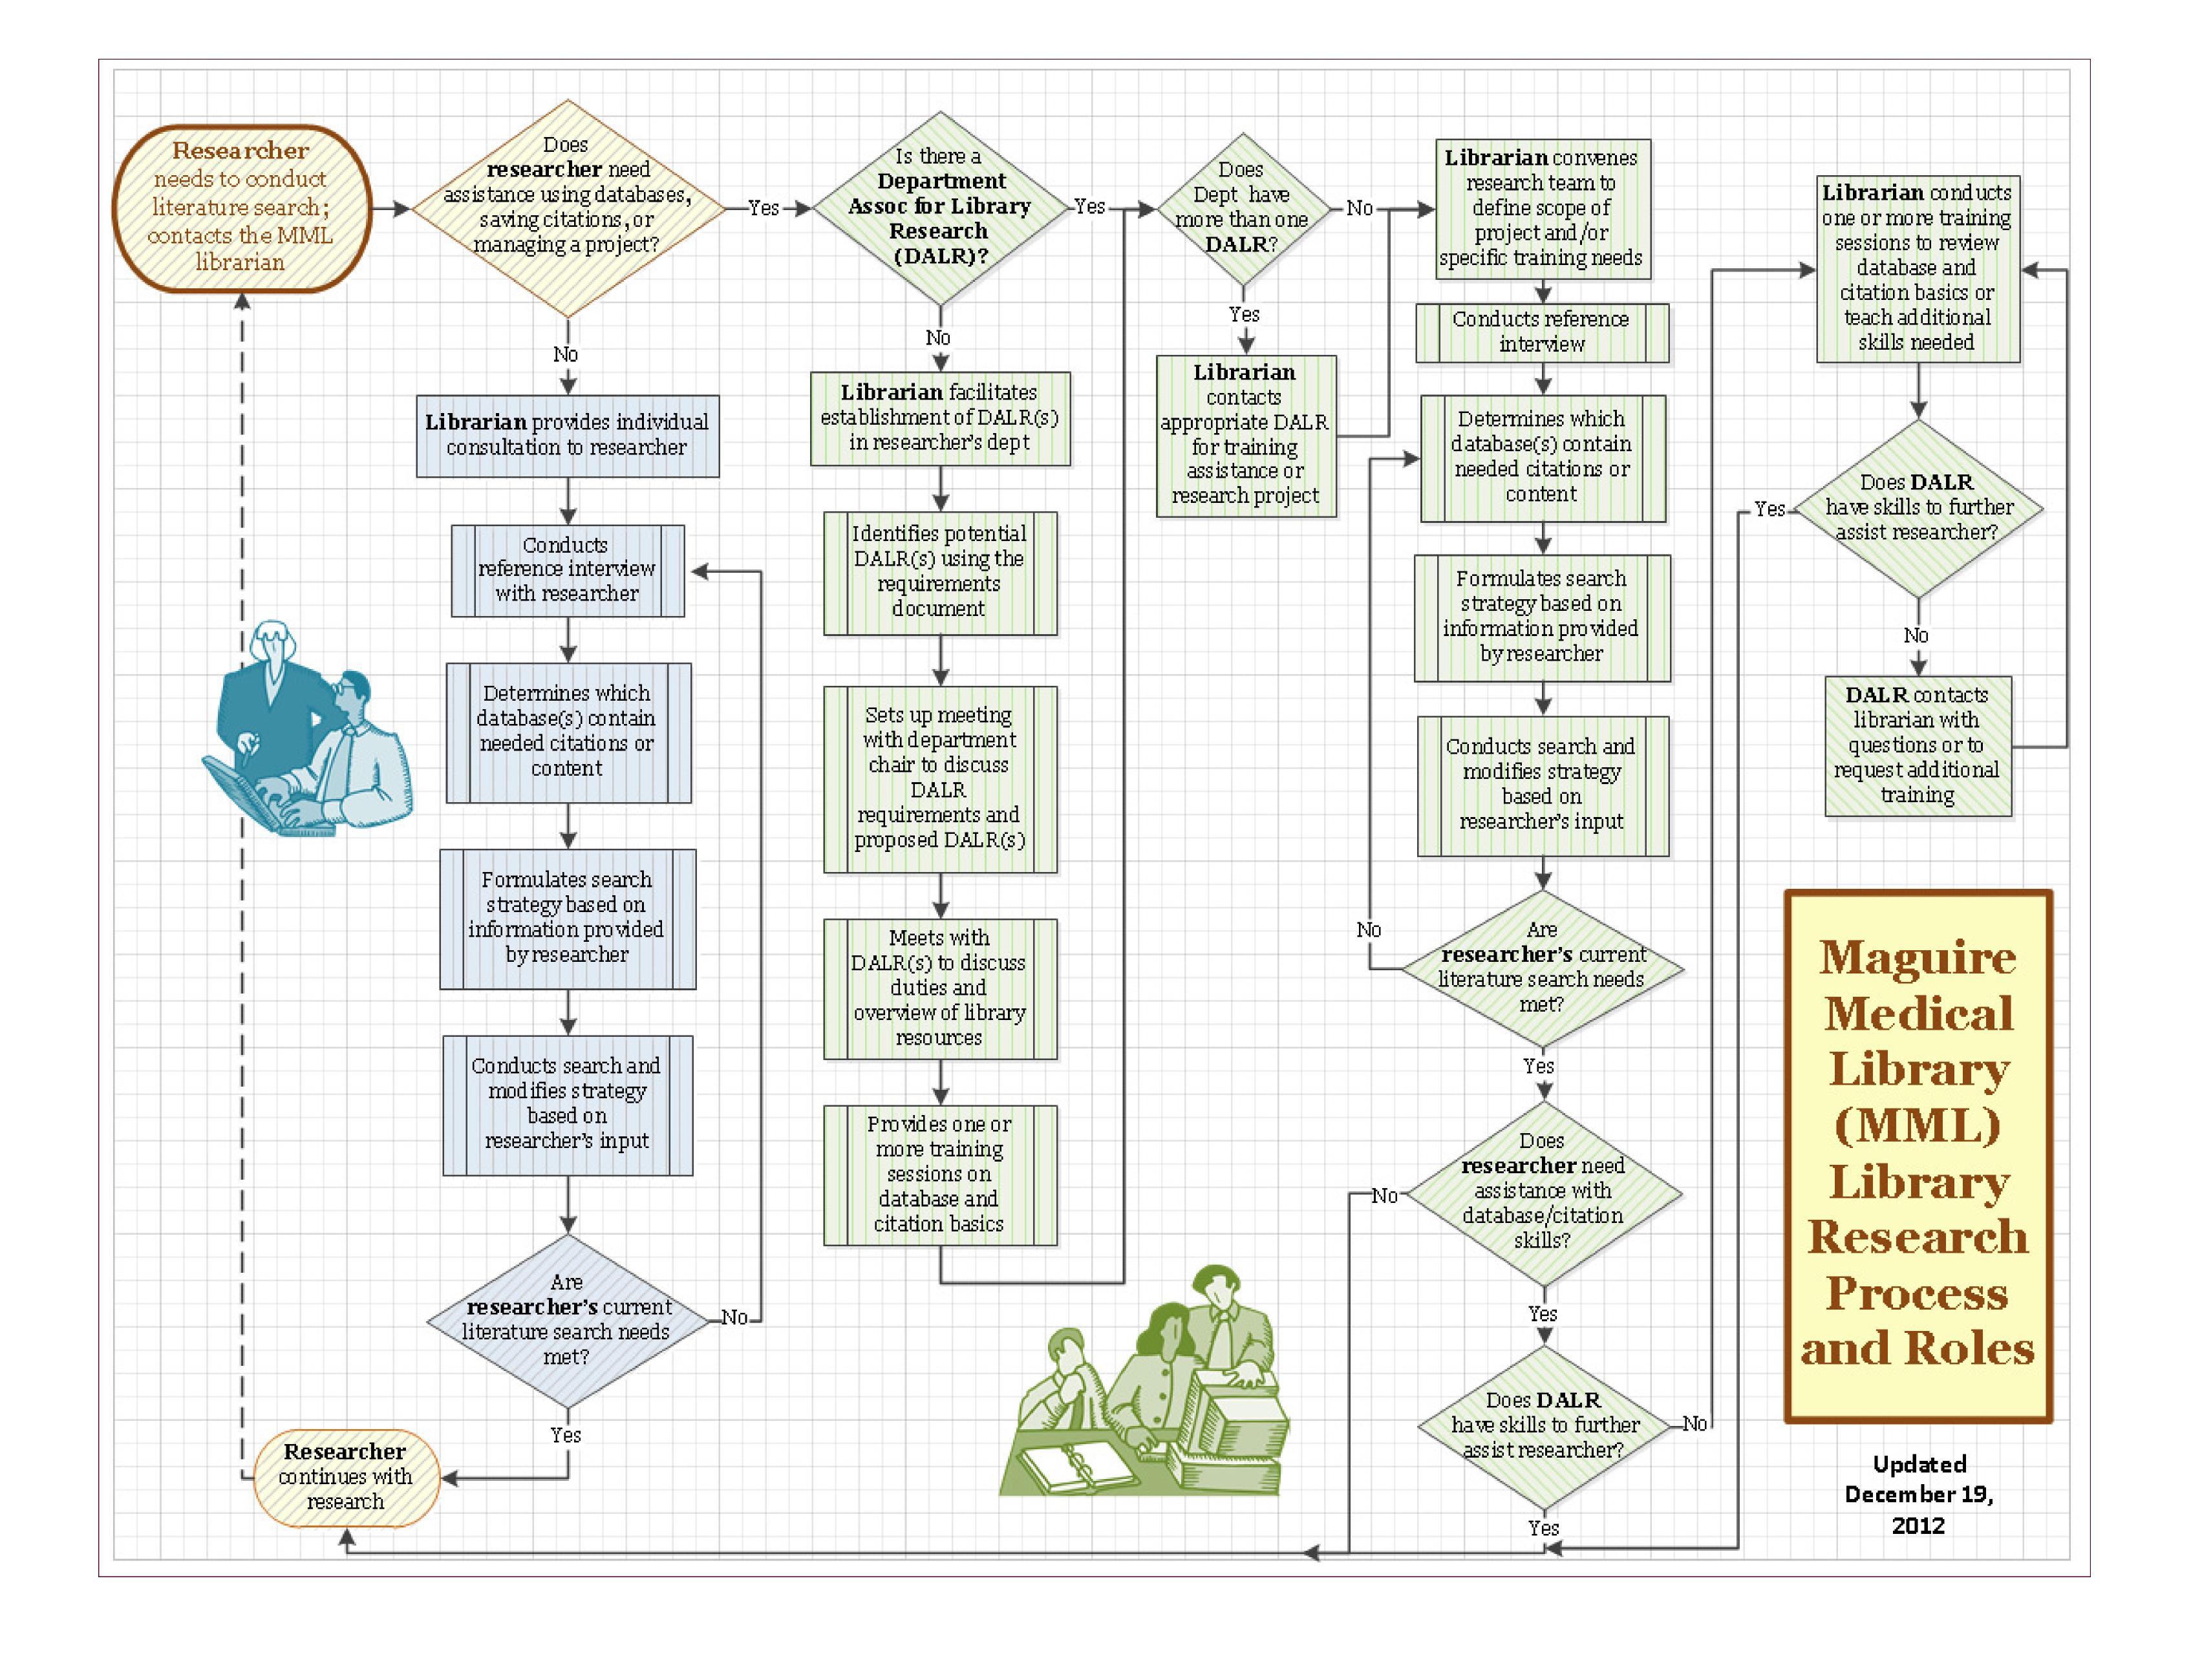

College of Medicine Faculty: Do you need to research a topic? Librarians from the Maguire Medical Library will work Determine the citation database(s) you should use for your

- management/writing tools, such as
- EndNote and EndNote Web Cite While You Write in MSWord
- Department associates for library research (DALRs)
- Request interlibrary loan articles from the library as needed Help you organize your citation collection or manage it for you o Format your citations/abstracts/papers for JAMA, APA, etc. Locate library and informatics instructional documents
- COM Department Assistants for Library Research (Updated 4-23-12) esponsibility and follows up independently on project tasks) knowledge base, DALRs must be able to communicate their needs effectively to the DALRs must also be very comfortable with using computers, and be able to troubleshoot a variety of computer problems. When computer problems can't be resolved by DALRs, they must be able to communicate problems clearly to the college's Office of Information Technology.

New Research Service Offers Options

Maguire Medical Library (MML) Capitalizes on Department Associates for Library Research (DALRs)

How Has the Service Evolved? Conduct Brainstorm training Meet with ideas and sessions department create chairs overview DALRs Gather Develop ideas for DALR "job promo to description"

What is the Payoff for the Service?

—Two Options for Research Assistance

Librarian provides consultation for faculty member or other researcher

faculty

Librarian convenes research team with faculty member or other researcher and department associate for library research (DALR)