TONIGHT—ONE WORSHIP SERVICE "Messiah"—7:45 P.M., Leon Auditorium 6:00 P.M.—TRAINING UNION

Our Training Union is cooperating tonight as we unite to worship at one service—annual presentation by the Oratorio Choir of Handel's immortal "Messiah," directed by Frank Boggs.

The hour scheduled for Training Union is 6 p.m. to 7:10 p.m., with choir members being dismissed at 7 p.m., in order that all might meet at 7:45 in a great hour of music. Those attending the Training Union will be given reservation which will entitle them to a place in the center section of the Auditorium—to be held until 7:40, allowing ample time for all to be present. Support the entire evening.

One hundred voices will bring glorious Christmas preparation to our hearts. Soloists are Deborah Clark, soprano; Inez Kohler, soprano; Betty Grimm, alto; Sam Jordan, tenor; Arthur Carter, bass; and The Crusader Choir. Accompanists are Mrs. Charles Walker, organist and Jerrald McCollum, pianist; 140 voices in all!

WHITE CHRISTMAS, 16th

Sunday, the 16th is being set aside as our Annual White Christmas Sunday. Every member of the family will want to have part in this sharing ministry. In each department of the Sunday School—Nursery on up—large containers will be provided for your contribution. The Benevolence asks that you wrap your gift in white, plainly marked on outside as to contents.

WHAT TO BRING? Food: Canned goods, candy, nuts, cookies, fruit, etc. Toys: new or used; clothing: new or used (mark size, sex), infants, children, adults—any and all kinds; money: if one prefers, he can give money marked "White Christmas" and the Benevolence Committee will add a ham or something to the boxes.

GREAT ETERNAL THEMES will be preached by our pastor during the Christmas Season. Hear every one!

(Tear off and place in offering plate)
