OPPORTUNITY TO SHARE: "WHITE CHRISTMAS" TODAY

Containers for your "White Christmas" Gifts will be found in the lobbies and in each department of the Sunday School today. We hope that each person brought his gift this morning, or will do so tonight. Certainly the latest to bring it would be Monday or Tuesday at the church office.

Food, clothing, toys, nuts, candy, bed clothes, etc. for all ages and sizes. MARK PLAINLY on the outside of your package—exact description of contents. If clothing, mark size, and whether for boy or girl. MONEY may be designated "White Christmas," and the Benevolence Committee will use it to help others in Christ's Name.

Benevolence Committee is James Edenfield, Judge Lawrence Renfroe, Claud Andrews, Charles Shaw, Mrs. John Sullivan. Others will help there.

"LIVING NATIVITY" STARTS WEDNESDAY

At 8:30 p.m. Wednesday night, the "Living Nativity" will be given outside on the church lawn until 10 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, from 6:30 to 9:30. Sunday, Christmas Night, from 8:30 to 10:00.

NEW YEAR'S EVE SUPPER, WATCH PARTY

Plan now to bring your basket and family for the New Year's Eve Supper and Watch Party, sponsored by the Training Union for all the church—7:15 p.m.

ANNUAL YOUNG PEOPLE'S CAROL TOUR—TV THIS YEAR!

The Annual Young People's Carol Tour will be held FRIDAY night, starting from the Duval Wing at 8:30 p.m. under the leadership of the Concord Choir and Mr. Boggs—for all young people. Carr Buick has given us 15 minutes time on WCTV for a live-telecast at 10:30 p.m. For the past ten years WTAL has carried this group.

CITY-WIDE SERVICE SATURDAY, 11:00 P.M.

The City-wide Christmas Eve service will be Saturday, Dec. 24, 11:00 p.m., First Presbyterian Church, with Dr. Joe A. Tolle as speaker. Carried on WTNT, 1450 KC.
