Mississippi Will Probe Boy's Slaying

GREENWOOD, MISS., Sept. 1

(AP)—The Governor of Mississippi Thursday called for a complete investigation of the kidnap-killing of a Negro youth who allegedly wolf-whistled at a white woman.

[Editorial comment Page 14]
 Governor White told newsmen

"Mississippi deplors such conduct on the part of any of its citizens and certainly cannot condone it."

In a telegram to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in New York, the Governor said: "Parties charged with the murder are in jail. I have every reason to believe that the court will do their duty in prosecution."

Taken From Uncle's Home

A bullet behind the ear killed 15-year-old Emmett Louis Till, of Chicago, soon after he was taken early Sunday from the tenant farm home of his uncle, Mose Wright, whom he was visiting. The kidnaping came a few hours after Till was reported to have whistled at Mrs. Roy Bryant, wife of a white storekeeper near Money, Miss.

The storekeeper and his half brother, J. W. Milam, of Glendora, Miss., are held in Leflore County jail in connection with the kidnaping and slaying.

"This is not a lynching," said Governor White; "it is straight-out murder."

Authorities also issued a kidnap warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Bryant.

Bryant has maintained he released the boy unharmed.

Wednesday the boy's body, weighed with metal, was found in the Tallahatchie River.
