

The Magnificent Spectacle commences at a quarter past 6 precisely with the Grand Procession into the Cathedral at Rheims.—Third week of "Sights in England," and the last week, for the present, of "The Battle of Waterloo."

ROYAL AMPHITHEATRE, (ASTLEY'S).

THIS EVENING, the Performances to commence with the costly and imposing spectacle of SIGHTS IN ENGLAND AND FETES IN FRANCE, embracing the most splendid scenery and dresses, superb regal pageants, banners, processions, cavalcades, royal carriages drawn by 6 and 8 horses, &c.; the piece offering as its principal feature a correct representation of the Coronation of Charles X., King of France. Mr. Woolford in the Circle. And THE BATTLE OF WATERLOO to conclude the evening's Entertainments.