

A very surprizing Performance of a Dancing Hare was exhibited for the first time at Sadler's Wells on Tuesday night, and is to be continued at the above place. This extraordinary animal is scarcely full grown, it dances on its hind legs, and occasionally beats a drum.